wyjeżdżam rano z Krakowa. Szary dzień. Dyabło bez humoru odby-wa się dziś ten wyjazd.

Pod Krzeszonicami drzewa ^(olchy) ~~wierzyki~~ na girach we mgle jak płuch zichony~~my~~ tu i owdzie rozrzesany pod wiatr i tam błękitnawy. W Świercimiru widzę ks. Jana Świemińskiego, który mnie nie pozna-
je. Przez całą drogę spotykam go po bufetach ale udaje mi się wycisnąć jego uwagę. Też są ze mną dwóch Kończy z Krak. dyseccyji;
jeden z nich, Ludwik Turgoński,
dr. geologii, wykładowca i cywilizowany człowiek. Był we Włoszech kilka razy, trochę zna Niemcy i t.

Takaś gniewna Niemkini i jakiś
b. grubiański Niemiec, jej mąż. 5

przeglądu mam wrażenie, że taką żonę wyrzuciłbym przez okno, ale potem widzę, że to zawożę ta sama historia, że na dnie jest niekończące gru-bianstwo mężczyzny. — Od Wrocławia Stonca. Żywa jeziora nie potoncz-
ne. — Pod wieczór pod Frankfurt Tadny kanał wśród zieloni, potem Odra.

Na dworcach Berlina kupia smocę lamp elektrycznych. Smutek jaski i osamotnienie bije z tych ulic Stugich, miłego mi zazwyczaj miasta.

Rozruszał mnie dopiero portyer ho-teli, który mnie jak przyjaciel
ta powitał

The whole of the country, from the sea to the hills, is a vast, open plain, with scattered trees and small villages.
At first, the land is very fertile, and the crops are ^{plentiful} and the people are happy. But as we go on, the land becomes more and more barren, and the people are more and more poor.

At last, we reach a place where the land is very fertile, and the people are very happy. This is a very large town, and it is the capital of the country. The people here are very rich, and they have many houses and gardens.

There is a great deal of money in this town, and the people are

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm air of the airport. I shivered slightly, pulling my coat tighter around me. The ground was covered in a thin layer of snow, and the trees in the background were bare and white.

2. As I walked towards the entrance, I saw a sign that read "Welcome to the City". It was a simple, wooden sign with the words painted in a cursive font. I smiled at it, feeling a sense of familiarity. The city had a unique charm, and I was excited to explore it.

3. The next thing I noticed was the smell of fresh bread. It was a warm, comforting scent that filled the air. I followed the smell, and soon I was standing in front of a small bakery. The owner, an elderly woman, greeted me with a friendly smile and offered me a slice of her famous chocolate cake.

4. I took a bite of the cake, and it was perfect. The chocolate was rich and smooth, and the cake was moist and fluffy. I thanked the woman and continued on my way. The city was truly a wonderful place, and I was glad to have found it.

My dear Mr. [illegible]

I have just received your letter of the 11th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well. I am also well and hope this letter will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much time to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much time to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work.

I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much time to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much time to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work.

I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much time to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much time to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm blanket I had been under. The air was crisp and clear, and I could see the mountains in the distance. The sun was shining brightly, and the snow was glistening in the sunlight.

2. The second thing I noticed was the silence. It was a deep, peaceful silence that I had never experienced before. The only sounds I could hear were the crunch of snow under my boots and the rustle of the leaves in the wind.

3. The third thing I noticed was the beauty of the scenery. The mountains were majestic and grand,
and the snow-covered trees were like a fairytale.
The water in the lake was crystal clear, and the reflection of the mountains was perfect.

4. The fourth thing I noticed was the feeling of freedom. It was a sense of liberation that I had never felt before. I was in a new world, and I was the only one there.

[Faint handwritten notes]

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm blanket I had been sitting under. The air was crisp and clear, and I could see the snow-covered trees in the distance. I took a deep breath and felt a sense of peace wash over me. The world was so quiet, and I was alone.

2. As I walked down the path, I noticed the snow was soft and fluffy. It was like a giant's foot had just stepped on it. I bent down and picked up a small clump of snow. It was so light and airy, and it melted in my hand. I looked up at the sky and saw a few stars twinkling in the darkness. It was so beautiful, and I felt like I was in a dream.

3. I continued to walk, and I noticed the snow was getting deeper. I had to be careful not to slip. I looked back over my shoulder and saw the car parked in the distance. I felt a sense of freedom, and I knew I was going to have a great time. The snow was so soft, and it was so quiet. I was alone, and I was happy.

4. I walked for a while, and I noticed the snow was getting even deeper. I was starting to get tired, but I didn't want to stop. I looked up at the sky and saw a few more stars. It was so beautiful, and I felt like I was in a dream. The snow was so soft, and it was so quiet. I was alone, and I was happy.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air. It was a relief after the stuffy cabin. The ground was covered in a soft carpet of green grass. The trees were tall and leafy.
The sun was shining brightly.
It was a beautiful day.

2. The second thing I noticed was the sound of the birds.
They were singing and chirping.
It was a pleasant surprise.
The water was clear and blue.
The sky was a deep blue.
The clouds were white and fluffy.
The wind was gentle and cool.

3. The third thing I noticed was the smell of the flowers.
They were fragrant and sweet.
The ground was soft and warm.
The water was calm and still.
The sky was a perfect blue.
The clouds were like cotton candy.
The wind was like a gentle hug.
